

ACTION HISTORY OF RTI REQUEST No.TACPO/R/2018/50120

Applicant Name :-Nikhil Dhariwal

Text of Application

1. Does the department liable for planning utility services (water, electricity, etc) for a town/city
2. List of areas/application were organization have used/or using GIS(GEOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION SYSTEM) for planning or managing data with details.
3. Does the organization keep information of underground utility, and in which formats(hard copy, soft copy, software)

Reply of Application

1. According to the Twelfth Schedule of the Constitution urban local bodies are liable for Urban Planning including town planning as well as infrastructure and utility services such as Roads and bridges, Water supply for domestic, industrial and commercial purposes, Public health, sanitation, conservancy & solid waste management and Provision of Urban amenities and facilities such as parks, gardens, playgrounds.
2. Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs is using Geographical Information System(GIS) for planning or managing data on implementing the National Urban Information System Scheme (NUIS). In addition GIS is widely used in the areas such as GIS Mapping, Urban Planning, Transportation Planning, Environmental Impact Analysis, Disaster Management and Mitigation, Land Information System, Regional Planning, Land Use Surveying, Utilities Mapping, Development of Public Infrastructure Facilities and Infrastructure Development.
3. Organizations generally keep information of underground utility in soft copy format as well as in hard copy format depending upon the resources/tools/software used to design it.